Minors

If you are under the age of majority in your jurisdiction of residence, be sure to obtain your parent or guardian's permission before you send any Personal Information to us, or anyone else. We encourage parents to get involved with their children's online usage and to be aware of the activities in which they are participating.

Collection of your Information

We only collect Information that we believe is reasonably necessary for a legitimate purpose, as further described below. In offering you the Services, we may collect Personal Information that you, or another, provides directly to us by filling in forms, and Non-identifiable Information that we collect from cookies or tracking software we utilize. In addition to Information collected while you use the Site, we may also collect Information in other ways such as over the phone, via email and through location tracking devices.

The choice to provide us with Personal Information is yours. In certain cases, your decision to withhold Information may limit the Services that we can provide to you.

Use of your Information

We will only disclose your Information for purposes identified in this Privacy Policy, or if required by law. The Information that we collect and store is primarily used for the following purposes:

- i. to provide you with the Services;
- ii. to provide you with information relating to our Services;
- iii. to follow up on client or User comments and suggestions;
- iv. to manage and develop our business systems and operations;
- v. to monitor and conduct an analysis of our website traffic and usage patterns;
- vi. to post customer testimonials, comments or reviews;
- vii. to protect our rights and property; or
- viii. to lessen a serious threat to personal safety, health or security.

We will not sell, share, trade or otherwise distribute your Personal Information to third parties, except in accordance with this Privacy Policy. However, we reserve the right to use Non-identifiable Information for any commercial purpose in our sole discretion. Such commercial purpose may include, but is not limited to, sale to third parties to allow them to send targeted advertising messages.

We reserve the right to share any Information collected from you with affiliates, or to transfer such Information to a successor entity or to an entity which purchases substantially all of the assets of Neothermal.

We sometimes contract with outside organizations to perform specialized services such as hosting the Site. Our suppliers may at times receive, process or handle some of your Information. Only the Information necessary to perform the services under the contract is given to the supplier. Under their contracts with us, our suppliers may use such Information only to carry out the contracted service and must not store or use the Information for any other purpose. Our contracts with suppliers require that they provide a level of protection for your Information that is comparable to our own.

Security

To ensure that your Personal Information is secure, we have put in place commercially suitable procedures to safeguard the Information we collect against unauthorized use, disclosure, or modification. Nonetheless, transmission of information on the internet is not completely secure. Therefore, we cannot guarantee the security of data sent to us electronically on our Site, by email or otherwise and transmission of such data is therefore entirely at your own risk. Likewise, the storage of information is not completely secure and we cannot guarantee the security of data stored on our system and storage of such data is therefore entirely at your own risk.

Updating your Information and Correcting Errors

You have the right to access, verify and amend all of your Personal Information. Since we use your Personal Information to provide services to you and others, it is important that the information be accurate and up-to-date. If any of your Personal Information changes, is inaccurate, or is incomplete, please inform us so that we can make any necessary changes.

Third Party Website and Interaction
